

St Mark's
Episcopal Church
NEW CANAAN, CONNECTICUT

Mondays with Merton

Conjectures of a Guilty Bystander*, Thomas Merton

Led by The Rev. John Kennedy and Emma McDonald Kennedy, PhD

- 10/7 Part One: Barth's Dream, pp. 1-26
(through paragraph beginning "Blaming the Negro... has become a strong emotional need for the white man.")
- 10/21 Part One, pp. 26-55
(paragraph beginning "When a myth becomes a daydream..." through end)
- 10/28 Part Two: Truth and Violence: An Interesting Era, pp. 57-92
(through paragraph beginning "A distinction: to be 'thought of' kindly...")
- 11/4 Part Two, pp. 93-124
(paragraph beginning "There are various ways of being happy..." through end)
- 11/11 Part Three: The Night Spirit and the Dawn Air, pp. 125-170
(through paragraph beginning "Father S, who had to go to the doctor...")
- 11/18 Part Three: The Night Spirit and the Dawn Air, pp. 170-213
(paragraph beginning "Reading Chuang Tzu..." through end)
- 12/2 Part Four: The Fork in the Road, pp. 215-275
- 12/9 Part Five: The Madman Runs to the East, pp. 277-317
(through paragraph beginning "It has been remarked with truth that conservatives and progressives...")
- 12/16 Part Five, pp. 317-354
(paragraph beginning "Jacques Maritain has rightly protested..." through end)